

Lebanon Elks Lodge Sponsorship Services & General Terms

By becoming a lodge sponsor, you agree to purchase advertising within either our weekly lodge newsletter and/or our online website. We will make every attempt to utilize the data that you provide for these purposes.

Silver Level Sponsor:

- Your sponsorship is based on a one-year service period
- We will include your business card in our lodge newsletter with a live link to your corporate or group website.
- You will need to provide either a card that can be scanned or an electronic version suitable for posting. Graphics can be provided as either a jpeg or png format.
- If you want any additional information included, please provide it along with your application.

Gold Level Sponsor:

- Your sponsorship is based on a one-year service period
- You will receive the services included with the Silver level sponsorship with the addition of the Gold level benefits listed.
- Your business or group will also have their logo displayed on the lodge's website. You will also receive two special additional annual newsletter opportunities to highlight your business for special offers, sales or events.
- Newsletters are usually sent out on Wednesday of each week - occasionally every other week. Please provide your posting information no later than the Saturday proceeding the week you want to post. This allows time for editing and formatting the data as needed.

General Terms:

- We will make every effort to honor our sponsors requests. If there are any errors or omissions, we will correct them and re-release in the following weeks posting. Once a newsletter has been issued it cannot be retracted.
- All advertisements must be tasteful and fall within the general guidelines of decency. If any items are deemed to be outside lodge standards, we will contact the sponsor to resolve.
- If you are dissatisfied with the services provided, please contact the lodge sponsorship administrator and we will work with you to resolve the issue.
- By accepting these terms as a sponsor, you agree to not hold the Lebanon Elks Lodge #422 or its officers or members responsible for any financial damages or liability resulting from these services.

We appreciate you support of the Lebanon Elks Lodge #422 by becoming an advertising sponsor. Please sign the below and submit this form along with your payment information or check and your application. By signing you agree to the services, payment and general terms listed.
